

Learning Style Inventory (Student Version)

No wrong answers—just pick what sounds most like you!

Part A: When I learn best, I usually...

1. Remember what I see (charts, pictures, videos).
2. Remember what I hear (lectures, discussions, music).
3. Remember what I do (hands-on projects, moving around).

Part B: When studying, I prefer...

1. Highlighting, drawing diagrams, or looking at images.
2. Reading notes out loud or listening to recordings.
3. Making flashcards, building models, or role-playing.

Part C: In class, I like when the teacher...

1. Uses slides, graphics, or writes on the board.
2. Explains things out loud and lets us discuss.
3. Gives activities, labs, or games to try it myself.

Part D: When I need to remember something important...

1. I make a mental picture of it.
2. I say it to myself over and over.
3. I practice it or use it in real life.

Scoring

- If you picked mostly 1's → Visual Learner
- If you picked mostly 2's → Auditory Learner
- If you picked mostly 3's → Kinesthetic Learner